

Explorations 11 - End-of-Course Reflection - Citizenship & Perspectives

Course: Explorations in Social Studies 11

Title: End-of-Course Reflection - Citizenship & Perspectives

Length & Timing:

- 400600 words
- Final week

Student Instructions:

1. In clear paragraphs, respond to:
 - a) One topic, case study, or project from this course that most changed or deepened your thinking.
 - b) One way your understanding of Indigenous-settler relations, rights, or governance has grown.
 - c) One way you see yourself acting as an informed, responsible citizen in the future.
2. Use specific references to course work, not general statements.

Teacher Grading Criteria:

Specific References (/15)

Depth of Reflection (/15)

Organization & Clarity (/10)

Conventions (/5)

Total: /45